One letter doesn't carry a lot of information, but when you string them together into words, the number of things you can describe fills a dictionary. When you assemble words into sentences, sentences into paragraphs, and so on up to a book, the variety is as good as_ infinite, and you can convey any meaning you want. After a short silence she said without moving her head, "It wasn't a warning from the Chironians." approached Micky. "Do you believe in life after death?" "I won't be talking to him," said Geneva.
